I've updated my monthly payments and made the one time payment.

Good Morning Evan

You currently have an outstanding balance of $87.00 on your account. Please log onto your tenant portal and make a 1-time payment to bring your account to zero.

This balance is caused by your rent increase to a payable amount of $781.00 effective October 1st. Please update your recurring payments to reflect this for your January payment.

I have attached a copy of your tenant ledger for reference.

Thank you and have a great day!

Kind Regards,

Darren Wilcox
