Rent Discount:

A landlord is not required to offer a rent discount, but if a discount is given, it must be set out in writing. Reducing or removing a rent discount is not considered a rent increase under The Residential Tenancies Act. However, an unconditional discount cannot be reduced or removed unless the tenant receives written notice of at least 3 months. If a tenancy agreement or discount agreement is for a fixed term, a landlord cannot reduce or remove an unconditional discount during the term of the agreement. If a discount is subject to a condition, e.g. paying the rent on time, the landlord can withdraw it without notice if the tenant does not meet the condition.

The landlord is offering a rent discount of $_____ subject to the following conditions:

(Provide details of any conditions – add additional pages if necessary)

_____ Discount is the same as last year's or increased by $_____.

_____ Discount is reduced by $_____.

_____ Discount is removed.

_____ The proposed Rent Payable is subject to an application to the Residential Tenancies Branch for an above-guideline rent increase. The discount may be reduced or removed depending on the final decision on the landlord's application in any event, the Actual Amount Tenant Must Pay will not exceed $_____.
