Lease Renewal

Please review the attached documents carefully. The option to renew will expire on November 30, 2024. You will be able to view a fully executed copy on your Resident Services Portal.

Remember to log into your Resident Services Portal to adjust your auto-pay setup accordingly. We do not have the ability to make changes within your portal. You may be required to make changes to the payment amount or the end date. Failure to update your auto-pay setup may result in late payments and accumulation of late fees.

If you are planning to move out, please contact your Property Manager at dasha.dorofeeva@thorwin.ca. Your Property Manager will review the move out process, which includes a preliminary inspection and showing your apartment home prior to the end of your lease.

Form 4Renewal of Tenancy Agreement*Note to Tenant:

You may continue to occupy your rental unit. If you want to renew your tenancy agreement, you must sign this form and return it to the landlord by: November 30, 2024.

If the landlord has applied for, or plans to apply for, a rent increase above the guideline, you may sign this agreement and still have the right to end your tenancy with notice of two rental payment periods. Your right to give notice is in effect from the date you receive notice that the landlord is applying for a rent increase above the guideline until 14 days after you receive a decision from the Residential Tenancies Branch or Residential Tenancies Commission.

Rent Discount:

A landlord is not required to offer a rent discount, but if a discount is given, it must be set out in writing. Reducing or removing a rent discount is not considered a rent increase under The Residential Tenancies Act. However, an unconditional discount cannot be reduced or removed unless the tenant receives written notice of at least 3 months. If a tenancy agreement or discount agreement is for a fixed term, a landlord cannot reduce or remove an unconditional discount during the term of the agreement. If a discount is subject to a condition, e.g. paying the rent on time, the landlord can withdraw it without notice if the tenant does not meet the condition.

The landlord is offering a rent discount of $437.00 subject to the following conditions: Rent is paid in full and on time every month. In the event rent is late, the discount will be removed immediately and permanently.

✓_____ Discount is the same as last year's or increased by $182.00.

_____ Discount is reduced by $

_____ Discount is removed.

_____ The proposed Rent Payable is subject to an application to the Residential Tenancies Branch for an above-guideline rent increase. The discount may be reduced or removed depending on the final decision on the landlord's application in any event, the Actual Amount Tenant Must Pay will not exceed $

The receipt of this notice by the Residential Tenancies Branch does not mean that the rent increase is approved. The increase may be subject to review by the Branch.
F. Tenant Comment/Objection — Rent Increase on Non-Exempt Unit When landlords apply for a rent increase above the maximum, the Branch gives tenants an opportunity to comment in writing about the application as part of the review process. When landlords increase rent by an amount that is equal to or less than the guideline shown in Section C, tenants can file a written objection to the rent increase if they do not think the increase is justified for one of the following reasons: (a) the landlord is not maintaining the rental unit or residential complex; (b) the landlord has reduced or withdrawn a service or facility; (c) the landlord is not meeting any other obligation under your tenancy agreement or the Act; (d) you believe the landlord's costs have not increased. To object to a rent increase that is equal to or less than the guideline, send a letter to the Branch indicating which of the above reasons applies and explaining why. The Branch must receive your letter not later than 60 days before the date your rent is to increase. Send your objection to: The Residential Tenancies Branch, 1700-155 Carlton Street, Winnipeg MB R3C 3H8
